

BBK DAV COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, AMRITSAR

IQAC REPORT 2008-09

Section A: Plan of action chalked out by the IQAC in the beginning of the year toward quality enhancement

BBK DAV College for Women, a multi faculty institution, which aims to blend professional and vocational education with traditional courses, is an excellent model of what a women's college can do for a woman's development. The thrust of the college is the highly innovative and efficient management of all its resources-human and infrastructure. Every year begins with a series of meetings to review the progress of various departments, clubs and associations of the college. The strengths and weaknesses are analyzed impartially and new targets set and policies and programmes formed to achieve them.

In all these, the Holistic development of the students is the focus.

At the onset of the session 2008-09, the IQAC held its annual meetings with all the departments of the college, Youth Welfare club, Sports department, Scholar's club, Alumni Association Student Council, Accounts Branch, Library Committee, Hostel Committee, Discipline Committee and Admission Committee, to chalk out a blue print for the whole year.

- Formulate courses according to the demands of the job-market.
- Empowerment of women through various means; holding seminars, awareness programmes, skill building through workshops, exhibitions.
- To meet the expectations of parents and society from the college.
- Introduction of new subjects and streams to enhance the employability of the students.
- Installation of new infrastructure, teaching aids, new courses and programmes.
- Welfare scheme for staff and students including aid, incentives, scholarships and concessions.
- Proposal for workshops and seminars, conferences and exhibitions
- Research Projects.
- Strategies for further advancement in sports, academic & cultural activities.
- International linkages.
- Generating funds.
- Devise special programmes to inculcate social responsibility, sensitivity and social responsiveness in students.
- Plan programmes to inculcate civic sense.
- Plans for promotion of culture and heritage of India.

Section B:

1. Activities Reflecting the Goals and Objectives of the Institution

BBK DAV College for Women combines a commitment to teaching excellence with extensive sports and cultural opportunities. The academic thrust is on imparting knowledge of the subjects concerned and to develop critical abilities to enable the students to relate and use knowledge in real life situations. The co-academic and cultural activities are focused around inculcating a strong sense of commitment to nationalist, social and aesthetic values.

The college is constantly engaged in promotion and revival of Indian tradition, culture, heritage and spiritual philosophy through co-curricular/ cultural activities, theatrical presentations, learned discourses and awareness-raising programmes.

The college envisions the creation of excellent human resource through integration of multidimensional personality development programmes with the college curriculum, in order to produce world class professionals. Some of the important activities undertaken during the session are listed below.

a) Talent hunt programme

It is an important feature of the college that aims at exploring the latent talent of the freshers to further polish it to perfection. This year, the college organized a three week long, Talent Hunt Programme, under the aegis of Principal Dr. Neelam Kamra and Dean, Youth Welfare Department Mrs. Ritu Sharma. It included an array of competitions in Fine Arts, Home Science, Poem Recitation, Declamation and Quiz etc.

The department of Commercial Art organized competitions in Poster-making, College-making & Cartooning and the Youth Welfare Department held competitions in debate, poetical symposium, elocution and quiz.

b) Activities aimed to carry forward the cultural legacy

- The college makes earnest efforts to inculcate in the young minds/Indian, traditional Vedic values and ethics. Some of the activities undertaken during 2008-2009 are as follows:
- The prayer and the chanting of the National Anthem is a regular feature of the college. The relevance of important days and events is reaffirmed like Youth day, Women's day, Rishi Bodh day, Balmiki day, Sant Ravi Dass Day etc. In the past, the explanation of key Upanishads has also been undertaken. Sharing the thought of the day with the students was a regular feature of morning assembly.
- The members of Arya Yuvti Sabha conducted Havan daily and on special occasions as well in the college to promote Vedic values among the youth.
- The college offers Dharam Shiksha course. The teachers incharge of Arya Yuvti Sabha prepare students for the Dharam Shiksha examination conducted by DAV. CMC (College Managing Committee) New Delhi.

c) Activities aimed at academic enrichment.

- The college organized Art conclave on reinventing and reorienting Art Curriculum, Sept 05-06, 2008, in collaboration with Punjab 'Art Council at Kala Bhawan, Sector 16, Chandigarh. The venue was chosen as it happens to be at a junction of Punjab, Haryana, Himachal and Delhi. The key note address of this Artconclave, delivered by B.N. Goswami, World Renowned art historian, focused on intrinsic nature of art and culture and the related need for reforms. The learned

Art Guru exhorted the fraternity of Art educators to assume a shared sense of ownership in the meaningful change leading to unification & uniformity.

- The college organized a Two-Day UGC sponsored National Seminar on “Women And Media” on September 23-24, 2008.

2. New academic program initiated (UG and PG)

In the Year 2008-2010 the college introduced the following new programme i.e.B.Sc. Biotechnology (Three year).

3. Innovation in Curriculum design and transaction

Many teachers of the college contribute towards curriculum design as members of various boards of studies/ faculties of GNDU.

4. Interdisciplinary programmes started

No interdisciplinary programme was started during the session 2008-09.

5. Examination Reforms implemented

The major examination reforms implemented during the year were as follows.

- The students of some departments proposed the tentative date sheet for internal house examinations to be held during the year which was later finalized by the controller of examination. This participative approach led to minimal resistance to the final date sheet.
- In order to bring about uniformity in evaluation system, test installment system was initiated whereby the HOD reevaluated a sample of answer scripts marked by the temporary/adhoc faculty.
- The guidance and counseling cell of the college conducted interactive sessions with students to help them de-stress themselves and go through exams without fear and anxiety.
- In order to increase the number of teaching days, exams were conducted in a short period of 18 days.
- Students were asked to give their feedback on marking
